THE ROMANCE OF THE TELEGRAPH.

Some of the Odd Difficulties of Operating a Line Through Queer Countries.

A good deal of romance hovers around the means by which the world's news is gathered. The speed and accuracy with which telegraph messages are transmitted between the uttermost parts of the earth is marvelous when the conditions under which they are sometimes transmitted are considered

The Indo-European telegraph line offers a good illustration. It runs from London to Lowestoft on the east coast of England. It then dips under the sea to Emden, on the German coast, whence it passes through Germany to the Russian frontier From this point the wire passes by way of Warsaw, Rowno, Odessa, the Caucasus, and Tiflis to Persia, and by Tauris to Teheran, the capital of the shah's queer domain There it joins the Indian government line which runs from the Persian capital to Bushire on the Persian gulf. Thence the wires run through Baluchistan, and complete the route by connecting at Karachi, in northern India The operation of this immense stretch of line, passing through countries of such varying climates and general characteristics, is obviously one of much difficulty On the snow swept steppes of Russia the wires are sometimes snapped like thread by the rapid flight of flocks of wild geese The poles are cut down and made into firewood by the nomad tribes of the Caucasian districts, and the cunning innkeepers of Georgia seek to boom their post horse trade by deliberately creating faults in the wires. In certain parts of the mountainous regions of Asia the maintenance of the solitary line involves no little personal risk and hardship to the staff hands Communication is often cut off by avalanches in the mountain districts, and the work of repairing after a snowfall of five or six feet is no light matter

These mountain stations are provisioned with several months' supplies before the winter sets in, as the staff will be in touch with the rest of the world by the wire only until the spring weather opens out the passes In these supplies are always included a liberal allowance of books and games wherewith to relieve the monotony of the tedious winter exile.—New York Sun.

THE SOUTHERN SUMMER.

It Is Claimed That While Long It Is Not Oppressive.

Wrong impressions are hard to eradicate from the human mind. In the north and west it is a popular delusion that southern summers are extremely hot and oppressive, and that life here during the summer months is almost unbearable. This impression is formed upon no knowledge of the matter, but simply upon the assumption that, as we are nearer the equator, it must necessarily be much warmer than in more northern latitudes An investigation of the records of the government weather bureau will show that there is no ground for such an assumption.

Our summers are long, but they are not unpleasant The heat in the north and west is much more oppressive during June, July and August than in the south Deaths from sunstroke are much more numerous there, and the heat is decidedly more sultry Our long evenings are delightful, and a sultry night is seldom experienced Our laborers work in the fields all day long, and suffer less from the warmth than those of the north

In a nutshell, our summers compare favorably with those of any section of the country, and our long, pleasant, warm season is a decided advantage Our farmers can commence to work the land long before their northern and western brothers think of beginning, and can continue to utilize it months after they have stopped In the towns and cities the residents are exempted from heavy expenditures for warm winter clothing, and for the larger portion of the year the only fuel burned is for cooking purposes

In comparison with the north and west, it is doubtful if our long, pleasant summer is not as far superior to their short, blistering one as our short, mild winters are to their long, frigid ones —Montgomery (Ala) Advertiser

NEVADA STATE JOURNAL

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 1895.

AT IT AGAIN.

The Carson Tribune seems determined to try the mint robbery cases in its columns. It endeavors to create the impression that it is entirely wrong for the Government to make any attempt to ferret out the thieves and bring them to justice, and that the silver papers ridicule the idea that those indicted for stealing the bullion are innocent.

The Tribune ought to know that at least $75,000 was taken from the Carson Mint without authority of law. It should also be capable of understanding that the custodians of this bullion, men who were sworn and paid to protect it from thieves, should be held responsible for its safe keeping. If that rule does not prevail in mints and public institutions, then it is nonsensical to place officials under bonds to protect public property. No newspaper in the State, whatever its politics, has prejudged the defendants in the mint robbery cases and pronounced them guilty. The history of the cases shows that a court commissioner after due examination held the defendants to answer, and a United States Grand Jury, drawn from the body of the people and against whom the defendants interposed no objection on the ground of prejudice, found true bills against them for felony-embezzlement. They will doubtless be tried by an impartial jury of their peers and if the evidence does not prove them guilty beyond reasonable doubt they will be acquitted. What objections have the Tribune to that mode of procedure? It is in accordance with the law and the usages of ages. No newspaper nor individual in the State, so far as known to this writer, except the Tribune, has expressed an unqualified opinion as to the guilt or innocense of the defendants, and the generally expressed opinion of reasonable men is that the guilty parties, whoever they may be, should receive their just deserts. The Tribune does not deny that a theft has been committed, but it strives very hard to convey the idea that it is wrong for the authorities to endeavor to ascertain by the methods provided by law who the thieves are.

FRAUDULENT PENSIONERS.

There is much excitement at Pawnee, Oklahoma Territory, caused by indictments filed against a number of persons charged with defrauding the Government on pensions. Among those indicted are county officials and prominent lawyers who were instrumental in drawing up and certifying to bogus pension papers. The local pension agent is also implicated, as it appears that he was a party to the frauds.

The Government pays about $140,000,000 a year to pensioners. This is a heavy drain on the public purse, but when it is paid to deserving people there is no complaint. Every man who sustained injuries in his country's cause which incapacitated him from earning a livelihood for himself and those dependent upon him is entitled to a pension, but, as is often the case, when pensions are procured by perjury for persons who never smelt powder on the battlefield, those implicated in the fraud should be punished to the full extent of the law. It has been discovered that in many instances thousands of dollars were paid fraudulent pensioners out of the funds appropriated for those legally entitled to pensions. Every old soldier in the country should aid in exposing those frauds and sending the person to the penitentiary where they rightfully belong.

IT MAY BE HORNBLOWER.

It is reported that William H. Hornblower of New York will be offered the seat on the Supreme Bench made vacant by the death of Justice Jackson. It is said that Mr. Hornblower is willing to accept the appointment provided there is no doubt of his confirmation by the Senate.

Mr. Hornblower was nominated for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court two years ago to fill the place made vacant by the death of Justice Blatchford. Senator Hill of New York opposed his confirmation by the Senate and as it is an unwritten law of that body to reject any and all nominations that are objectionable to the Senators from the State from which the nomination is made, Hornblower was not confirmed. Now it is said that Senator Hill has withdrawn his opposition and will make no further objection to the nomination, hence it is possible that W. H. Hornblower may reach the goal of his ambition by being made Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States.

EX-CONGRESSMAN BRYAN on his way to this coast addressed the citizens of Salt Lake City, Boise City, Seattle and Portland on the silver question. He has large audiences everywhere and he spoke of the benefits to be derived from free silver, and sarcastically referred to Clevelandism in connection with the Morgan-Rothschild bond deal. It is probable that Mr. Bryan, who is one of the greatest orators of the nation, will address the citizens of Reno about the last of this week or the first of next week on the silver question.

THE Democratic Convention of Pennsylvania endorsed Cleveland's Administration, commended the repeal of the Sherman act, and to make it appear that they differ with the Republicans arraigned the State administration, which is Republican.

THE TRIAL OF DURRANT.

Several New Witnesses Examined Yesterday.

THE STANFORD ESTATE.

The Gold Reserve Touches the $95,000,000 Mark.

DURRANT'S TRIAL.

Conclusive Evidence That the Defendant Was With Miss Lamont on April 3d.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal, September 17.—The defense in the Durrant case is trying to break down every witness of the prosecution. As each testifies a long and apparently purposeless examination by the defense follows, the sole object being, it seems to entrap the witness into some unimportant contradiction. No progress has been made in this respect with any witness. All who have testified for the people have stuck to their evidence and remained firm and positive in their identification of Durrant as the man last seen with Blanche Lamont.

To-day's proceedings began with Miss Maud Lamont again on the stand, this time to identify the photograph of Blanche. Although taken three years ago, Maud said it was very much like Blanche at the time she disappeared. The defense objected vigorously to the picture being produced as an exhibit, evidently fearing that it would lead to a further identification of Blanche as Durrant's companion on April 3d.

Martin Quinlan, an attorney, said he had lived for ten years at Twenty-third and Mission streets, near Emmanuel Church.

He had frequently seen Theodore Durrant in the neighborhood and knew him well by sight. On the afternoon of April 3d he had an engagement with David Clark at the corner of Mission and Twenty-second at 4 o'clock. At about ten minutes past 4 he saw Durrant and a girl in a dark woolen dress and a leghorn hat. They crossed Bartlett and Twenty-second street, going toward Emmanuel Church. They passed close to the witness. Durrant's face was turned toward the witness, and he was listening eagerly to something the girl was saying. The girl was carrying a package tied with a strap. The defendant's attorneys tried to make Quinlan admit that he had taken so many drinks on that day that he could not recognize any one and that his testimony was practically valueless. Quinlan was required by the defense to detail every movement that he made on April 3d from the time he rose till night. He told of every drink he took and Durrant's attorneys tried to make him admit he had visited innumerable saloons, but witness was not to be bluffed and stuck to his story without variations.

Continuing the cross-examination Quinlan was asked to describe the streets, sidewalks and houses in the neighborhood of Emmanual Church and along the line of the street cars that Quinlan took from the new City Hall to his home in the mission. The witness said he fixed the date on which he saw Durrant and the girl approaching the church by the aid of his friend Clark, with whom he went later in the afternoon to see Clarke's brother in St. Luke's Hospital. The time he took to go from the City Hall to Mission and Twenty-second streets was abut fifteen minutes.

For the purpose of impeachment the defense asked the witness if he ever was arrested for assault to commit murder, but as they had to admit that Quinlan had been acquitted of the whole matter, it was ruled out.

THE STANFORD ESTATE.

The Suit Involving Millions Before the Court of Appeals.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 17.—The United States has begun another attack upon the Stanford estate in the Circuit Court of Appeals for $15,000,000. When the case was heard in the United States District Court a demurrer interposed by the defense was sustained, so that the case never actually came to a trial. It was considered a victory for the widow of Senator Stanford, however, for her attorney was upheld in every point. L. D. McKissick, special counsel for the Government, began his argument on his appeal this morning. The history of the Central Pacific as made by Congress, the bill of complaint and the decision of the District Court were enumerated in the opening remarks. Little or no new material was introduced.

The Gold Reserve.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—The gold reserve has touched the $95 000,000 mark. Since the recent heavy shipment of gold set in the Government has received a number of offers of gold in exchange for notes. This particularly from banks in the Northwest, where small notes are in active demand in moving the grain crops. Other banks apparently disinterested have offered gold in exchange for silver certificates.

The True Spirit.

The JOURNAL publishes in another part of this issue the resolutions adopted by the physicians of Reno in memory of the late Dr. Dawson. The resolutions are signed by every member of the profession in town as well as several physicians from Carson and Virginia who came here for the express purpose of attending the funeral. Had the opportunity offered there is no doubt but what the name of every physician in the State would have appeared, for the deceased was recognized by the profession as an able man. This is the true spirit and demonstrates that though there may be different schools and they may differ as to the manner of treatment, they are broad minded men and are ready and willing to recognize ability and worth and bury all petty differences when one of their number is stricken while hastening to the bedside of a sufferer or in the performance of a duty which the profession holds as most sacred.

THE COCONA TOILET SPECIALTIES

Are attracting the favorable attention of the public because of the excellence of the articles and the beneficial effects to all who are using them. The general satisfaction given is resulting in a large increase of sales and every one is commending the Cocona preparations.

The Silver State says William Lofthouse, who was accidentally shot at St. Clair, Churchill county, is in a fair way to recover. Dr. Holmes of Wadsworth, the attending physician, expects to see him up and around before long.

Lawyers Who Make Their Own Wills.

Many combative men have neglected to settle their affairs. Ben Jonson, Dryden and Sir Isaac Newton all died intestate. Baron insolvent, and the epigram on Butler's monument in the abbey sufficiently explains why he and many others like him never made a will:

The poet's fate is here in emblem shown:
He asks for bread and he receives a stone.

"Wills," said Lord Coke, "and the construction of them do more perplex a man than any other, and to make a certain construction of them exceedeth jurisprudentiam artem." An old proverb says that every man is either a fool or a physician at 40. Sir H. Halford happening one day to quote the saying to a circle of friends, Canning humorously inquired, "Sir Henry, mayn't he be both?" At any rate experience teaches that lawyers who draw their own wills sometimes make great mistakes. Sir Samuel Romilly's will was improperly worded, Chief Baron Thompson's will became the subject of chancery proceedings, while the will of Bradley, the eminent conveyancer, was actually set aside by Lord Thurlow.—Temple Bar.

IN MEMORIAM

Resolutions Respecting the Death of Dr. Dawson.

WHEREAS: We, the practicing physicians of Nevada, have learned with profound sorrow of the death of our brother in the practice of medicine, Dr. A. Dawson, which occurred at Reno, Nevada, on this 14th day of September, 1895; therefore be it

Resolved, That we recognize in the death of our said brother and friend a loss to the profession of which he was an able and honored member; a loss to the community in which he was an active and highly respected citizen, and to each of us a loss in the circle of true friendship; be it further

Resolved, That his many deeds of charity in relieving distress and alleviating misery whenever and wherever the same came within his observation without expectation of remuneration or other reward than the consciousness of the full performance of the promptings of a kind and benevolent heart constitute a more enduring monument to his memory than could be erected from polished granite or stainless marble; be it further

Resolved, That to his stricken wife children, relatives, and especially to his devoted kinsman, Dr. H. H. Hogan, we extend our earnest condolence.

A BRUTAL BULL FIGHT.

Highly Exciting Scenes at a San Bernardino Barbecue.

The bull fight which took place at San Bernardino, California, proved to be very exciting. The majority expected a tame affair but it proved the reverse. Six wild bulls from the mountains had decidedly the best of the fight, and kept the toreadoes quite too seriously busy keeping out of the way. On two or three occasions the toreadoes were compelled to jump over the back of the bull running at full speed to escape. Another, more unfortunate, fell when near his shield of safety, and with a loud roar of rage the bull was upon him and charged him three times in his fallen position before his comrades could divert the bull's attention. One or two others escaped with slight injuries.

Then the vacqueros entered again and with lassos threw the bull. While tieing the rope about the bull's body one of the vacqueros made a mistake and the bull freed his legs from the restraining ropes, when he bounded to his feet and dashed at the nearest person, who only saved himself from being gored by grabbing the bull's tail as he cavorted around the arena, handily dropping near a guard of safety. A few minutes later another toreado was knocked down and injured by a bull.

The "Student Record."

The first number of Volume III of the Student Record is received. It is the first issue of the magazine for this school year and is an excellent number. Its several departments are filled with entertaining and substantial reading matter. An article by the President touching on the academic year of 1895-96 contains many good suggestions to the students as well as advice. He speaks encouragingly of the future of the University and what may be accomplished in the direction of success by the pupils. Athletic and society notes, bits of fun, personals, news items and well written articles by students comprise its makeup, and altogether it is a well edited magazine.

It is published semi-monthly by the Independent Association of the University of Nevada, and furnished to subscribers at the low price of $1 per year. As an advertising medium it is worth the while of our tradesmen to patronize it, for its circulation not only in Reno or vicinity, but in every part of the State and Northern California would warrant the investment of the reasonable price charged for the service.

The editorial staff is composed of O. T. Williams, J. M. L. Henry and E. A. Powers. Editors, F. E. Waits, G. R. Bliss, J. R. Magill, Gertrude Hyronymous and Rosalia Murphy. Business staff, F. M. Linscott, Manager; A. W. Ward, Assistant Manager.

The young people are at considerable expense for its publication and they should receive substantial encouragement by being patronized by our people.

An Attempt to Burn a School-house.

An attempt was made to burn the Central school-house at Carson Monday night. Prof. Howe discovered the fire and extinguished it. There was strong evidence that it was the work of a fire-bug, as coal oil was found in the sand near by and the position of the fire indicated the purpose of it. The trustees have an inkling who the incendiary is and trouble may result.

CENTRAL AND UNION PACIFIC ROADS.

An Omaha Paper Tells What Should be Done.

The Omaha Bee calls upon Congress to save the Central and Union Pacific roads by requiring them to be operated as one continuous line. It says the officers of the Government should interfere and give those roads a chance to do business by preventing the diversion of traffic from the Central to the Southern Pacific road.

It says the very latest effort to hamper the Union Pacific is the proposed abandonment of all but one passenger train daily between Ogden and San Francisco.

"At the same time the Southern Pacific has recently supplemented its passenger train service by a new palace coach service, advertized to reduce time and afford luxurious accommodations. How can the Union Pacific be expected to pay operating expenses under such conditions, much less lay up a surplus to pay off its bonded indebtedness? Something must be done by Congress if the Government's interest in the Pacific roads is to be protected, and people in the central belt, who depend on those roads for an outlet to and from the coast, are to have the transportation facilities to which they are entitled."

SMALLPOX.

Three Cases at the Carson Indian School.

The physicians here ascertained beyond doubt that there are three cases of smallpox at the Indian School at Carson. They have also ascertained that there is no vaccine matter in the State except some points which are unfit for use.

There is a State Board of Health of which Dr. S. L. Lee of Carson and Drs. J. A. Lewis and W. A. Phillips of Reno are members. The appropriation for the State Board of Health made by the last Legislature is $1,000 for the two years. It has been suggested that a part of this appropriation be expended in vaccinating the Indians. They travel from one part of the country to another and are liable to spread the disease and communicate it to white people.

THE SHEEP LICENSE LAW.

A Verdict in Favor of Defendants.

In the case of Elko county vs. Wheeler Brothers, involving the validity of the sheep license law, a verdict was rendered in the District Court at Elko, Judge Cheney presiding, yesterday. The Wheeler Brothers are residents of Eureka county. They had sheep grazing in Elko county and refused to procure a license. Suit was brought by the District Attorney to compel the payment of the license. Hon. Thomas Wren appeared as counsel for the defendants and the case was tried before Judge Cheney with the result stated. This may end the sheep license business though the special point on which the decision was rendered was not stated in the report received by the JOURNAL.

DECOY DUCKS.

Hovering Around Traps to Entice Silver Men.

The honest voters of the United States would long ago have asserted their rights against the rule of the gold kings if it had not been for the decoy ducks of the two old parties who deceived them and led them into the goldbug traps, known as Republican and Democratic national conventions. The decoy duck business is now at high tide, and the same old ducks are hovering around the goldbug traps to entice the innocent flock within the deadly range of Cleveland's and Sherman's artillery. Look out for ducks labelled silver, subject to ratification by the national convention.—Silver Knight.

Cadet Butterly Dying.

A letter received by Professor Ring from West Point Academy, says: "Mr. Butterly, who is attending the military academy from Nevada, is not expected to live. He went to the hospital September 4th, and soon after began bleeding at the mouth, and has been constantly up to date, September 8th, and eats nothing. He has a high fever and I have often heard him speak of you, so I thought I would let you know. The physician will not permit anybody to speak to him."

Young Butterly attended the State University and was appointed to West Point by Congressman Newlands, he having stood highest in a competitive examination.

Struck in the Head With an Ax.

Fred Teasland of the Mound House told the JOURNAL last evening that Charles Johnson, section foreman at a place called Tibbetts on the Carson & Colorado road near Independence, was found Monday morning in his cabin in an unconscious condition. Indications showed that he had been struck in the head with an ax. Whether it was an attempt at murder or for the purpose of robbery cannot be learned as the man had not returned to consciousness at last reports. It is feared that he may not recover as he is very badly injured.

BREVITIES.

Prof. C. L. Logan, ex-principal of the Methodist Academy at Bishop, Inyo county, California, and family arrived on the V. & T. last evening and took the train for Rock River, Ill. Prof. Logan goes east to report at his home conference.

There were fifty-seven new students registered at the University yesterday afternoon. This is considered an excellent indication for the opening of the school year. Registration will close on Thursday evening and recitation work will commence Friday morning.

Congressman Newlands is reported as saying to a New York paper that if the improvement in business continues silver will cease to be an issue and nothing can prevent the renomination of Mr. Cleveland. It is very probable that Mr. Newlands said nothing of the the kind.

Mrs. A. R. Shirely, the wife of the agent at Bishop Creek, has gone violently insane. She attempted suicide Friday. The character of her insanity is religious mania and her condition is attributed to the influence of a Holiness Band that is working the southern part of the State. She will be taken to a California asylum.

The Summer girl is wearing a blouse waist with sleeves larger than ever, a skirt with godet plaits, a jaunty yachting cap, but no vail. She has found that her complexion is her strong point and that when she takes a cup of Parks' Tea at night it keeps it fresh and clear and that a little sunburn is an added attraction. She finds, too, that she can be more athletic if she never misses her cup of Parks' Tea. Sold by S. J. Hodgkinson.

The following arrivals were registered at the Hotel Reno yesterday: Albion S. Meily, Carl F. Muir, Roy Mathewson, Hamilton; T. W. Mack, F. E. Gignoux, Dayton: G. W. Strasnider, Mason Valley; C. J. Flood, Virginia; Mrs. Wm. Wilson and daughter, Pine Grove, Miss Bessie Wilson, Yerington; Miss Lou Willis, Nordyke: W. F Norris, Battle Mountain; Geo Sawyer, Picche; H. H. Dexter, Virginia; F. L. Davis, Battle Mountain; B. F. Andrews, J. P. Andrews and Mary J. Anderson, Golconda.

Quarantined.

The Tribune says that Dr. Lee placed the Indian School under strict quarantine yesterday. Five clearly defined cases of smallpox have developed. The doctor gave permission to the teachers and assistants to leave the place yesterday morning if they desired, after proper precautions were taken, but after that they must consider themselves under strict quarantine. Some of them are badly frightened, but they decided to remain.

Jim Burge has been sent for to go to the school and act as nurse.

Those who were taken down first are children who visited Long Valley during the vacation of the school, but whether they took the infection there or the disease is caused by the filthy mode of living is not known. It is a bad time of year for the disease to get a foothold, and considering this, an investigation should be made of the Indian camps hereabouts.

Marvellous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Diamondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Rives Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at S. J. Hodgkinson's drug store. Regular size, 50 cts. and $1.

THE PRIZE FIGHT OF THE FUTURE.

As It May Be Served Up by the Reporter a Hundred Years Hence.

"Denver Ed" Smith stepped into the ring and shook hands with Bill Higgins at precisely 9 o'clock.

First Round.—"Denver Ed" led with a bunch of silver statistics delivered rapidly. Higgins countered with a quotation from Adam Smith. Light sparring ensued, neither contestant being injured.

Second Round.—Higgins started in by rushing Ed all over the ring. Ed ducked cleverly and met his opponent with a body blow from Sauerbeck's tables. Honors even.

Third Round.—Smith aimed a powerful silver argument at Higgins' head, but fell short. Bill rushed in and infighting ensued, with a hot exchange of epithets. Bill's friends claimed a foul, but the referee would not allow it. Round slightly in Smith's favor.

Fourth Round.—Smith pursued the same tactics, but Bill gave ground. Bill is hissed. Bill counters on Ed's plea for bimetallism. Both men fighting hard. Ed drops to avoid punishment.

Fifth Round.—Both men slightly winded. Bill starts in with a terrific volley of treasury statistics straight from the shoulder. Ed goes to his knees, but is up in a moment and upper cuts with a report of the crime of 1873. A straight knockdown, the round closing all in Ed's favor.

Sixth Round.—A repetition of the preceding, Ed having the best of it.

Seventh Round.—This was the hottest round of the fight. Bill reached for Ed's position with a statistical report, but Ed was not there. He ducked cleverly and met Bill half way with a statement of the volume of the currency since 1880. Bill staggered a little, but recovered and tried to rush in and clinch. He failed, but succeeded in landing an argument in return. Both men exchanged hot blows, then sprung together and clinched, falling. They were almost carried to their corners, where their seconds were stimulating them with works on the theory of finance.

Eighth Round.—Bill got Ed in a corner, read a chapter of an answer to "Coin's Financial School" to him. Foul claimed, but not allowed. Ed rushed Bill furiously. Both men weak.

Ninth Round to the Seven Hundred and Fifty-sixth.—Uneventful rounds; both men working hard, but too weak to do damage.

Seven Hundred and Fifty-seventh Round.—After a short exchange of faint blows the referee intervened and declared the contest a draw.—Chicago Record.

WHAT IS ELECTRICITY?

Some of the Numerous Theories on the Mysterious Current.

Well, what is it? It is scarcely possible to say. There are theories—many of them. It is evidently something of which we cannot take a part; we cannot cut a piece of it off and subject it to analysis, nor can we pour a little of it into a bottle for future study and contemplation. It is like the wind—its effects can be measured, its force, strength and quantity can now be calculated to a very nice degree. Still, to liken it to the wind, it is a stupendous power, a mighty typhoon, blowing, as it were, without moving, two ways at once along all parts of its path, giving off a halo of magnetism at right angles to that path everywhere.

One of the nicest theories, perhaps, is the one that considers electricity a "condition" of atoms, brought about by chemical action, as in a battery cell, or by what might be called a severe irritation of the magnetic halo, as in a dynamo, and by other means, such as heat and friction.

What this condition is is beyond us; it may be a violent rotation, or it may be an equally violent vibration of atoms! Probably the arc light would prove it to be a vibration. But as no man has seen an atom at any time, not even with the most powerful microscope, it is impossible to say. Friction in some form or other is present, as heat is produced before burning, or destruction, takes place.—Exchange.

How to Judge a Book.

We knew that the Moslems, when they conquered Persia, found in that country an innumerable quantity of books and scientific treatises, and that their general, Saad Ibn Abi Ouccas, asked Caliph Omar by letter if he would allow him to distribute those books among the true believers with the rest of the booty. Omar answered him in these terms: "Throw them into the water. If they contain anything which can guide men to the truth, we have received from God what will guide us much better. If they contain errors, we shall be well rid of them, thank God." In consequence of this order the books were thrown into the water and the fire, and the literature and science of the Persians disappeared.—Notices et Extraits.

Three Books.

A leading literary light in one of the best known woman's colleges says that there are just three books that everybody should know by heart—"The Arabian Nights," "Alice In Wonderland" and "Mother Goose." "A thorough knowledge of those masterpieces," she says, "will do more toward cultivating the imagination than any other process that I know of. And I regard imagination as the most important of all mental faculties." This is in direct and significant opposition to the ideas held by many parents and teachers that fairy tales are injurious reading for the young.—New York Sun.

HAY SALT.

FINE GROUND SALT FOR HAY. To salt hay properly, put up the hay, when partly cured and use five pounds of fine salt per ton of hay. The moisture in the hay will then dissolve the salt into a brine which in turn will cure and preserve the hay and add to its weight. Animals will eat it with relish and consume all that is eatable. All will be benefitted. An ordinary animal will eat about one-half ton of hay per month, so that if hay is salted with five pound of salt and dissolved and taken up by the hay as it should be each animal will get two-and-one-half pounds of salt per month and that is enough. The animals will be healthier and you will make better beef and better mutton. The merchants of Reno will furnish the salt to consumers and I will sell to consumers at $16 per ton at the S. P. Depot. The salt will cost the farmers 4 cents per ton of hay. The merchants and farmers will all make money as all do who buy from me.

My Eagle Salt is 1.39 per cent purer than Higgins' Liverpool. So certified by J. Warne Phillips Chemist of the University of Nevada.

jy2m1 R. F. LEETE.
